

School Bulletin Friday 10th October 2025

With only 4 school days to go it gives me great pleasure to tell you how well the school has settled into new routines this half term. Pupils are settled and starting to get into the learning routines which will allow them to make great progress this year.

We are all looking forward to our longer October break and I hope to see pupils back feeling refreshed and ready for the big push to the end of the year. I can't believe we are thinking about Christmas already!

Have a great holiday and remember that we are closed for an INSET day next Friday 17th

Cornish Summer Concert performance at CELT

We were delighted to be invited to take some of our school choir to perform as part of a CELT Trustee Strategy Day this week.

10 children from Oak Class went to the Atlantic Centre in Newquay and performed a range of songs from their Cornish Summer Concert. They then enjoyed staying for lunch and having a chance to talk to the Trustees and other members of the CELT Central Team who were there. We are very proud of all the children who represented the school.

Our CEO (Dan Morrow), among others, emailed his thanks through later in the day – "it was absolutely superb and the highlight of the day. I found myself misting up at a few points and whilst I might be an incomer, am absolutely signed up to Cornwall in all its glory"

PALS

Our next meeting is this Tuesday 7:30 pm at the school.

All welcome, we appreciate any help and support.

One of our new reception parents works for Keir. They have become one of our newest match funders!! This means they will match anything up to £500 of what we raise. Thank you and welcome Adrian Parker!

We thank Alison Turner who previously supported match funding via Halifax for many years at Luxulyan and Nic Clark who continues to do so via Lloyds bank. Both ladies are on the committee but do not have a dedicated role. They have supported with tombolas, Christmas craft days and much more, this meant the businesses would match us!! Thank you ladies 😊

Our small but powerful team are truly amazing with everyone giving a little bit of their time.

Come along for a cuppa share some ideas, get involved and join the team!

See you Tuesday

Mrs Fox
