School Bulletin Thursday 16th October 2025

We are all very excited to be heading into a school holiday as the staff and pupils have worked so hard to ensure this first half term back has been a success.

We thank you for your support in ensuring good levels of attendance and engagement with the whole school community. In the next half term we will be looking more exclusively at learning outcomes in classrooms.

We will see you ready and refreshed to go on Monday 3rd November.

Have a great holiday.

Mr Cooper

Attendance: 13th October – 16th October: Whole School 94.6%

For all CELT schools this attendance threshold is set at 96% in line with national attendance data.

INSET days and Half Term

We now have a two week break as we are closed tomorrow for an INSET day. Return to school is Monday 3rd November 2025.

Wraparound Club – after half term

Don't forget – please remember to book wraparound care for after half term by the Thursday before we return – Thursday 30th October 2025.

Go Cornish

Dydh da/hello

Our phrase of the month for October is 'Prys Li' (pronounced 'pris lee') which means lunch time. Why not try using it at home over half term?

We will return after half term with our words of the week.
