Notenn a-dhia Penndhyskader/Note from Miss Allison

Dydh da/hello,

Wow – I can't believe we've reached the end of another term, and already two-thirds of the school year have gone! It has been an action-packed few weeks, and I know I speak for all the staff when I say how proud we are of everything that has been achieved.

We hope everyone enjoys a restful holiday and returns refreshed for an exciting new term ahead.

Happy Easter – Pask Lowen!

Miss Allison – Senior Teacher

CELT National Year of Reading Newsletter: March 2026

Welcome to Reading Together

March has been a fantastic month for reading. We kick started it with World Book Day on 5th with all schools taking a proactive approach in putting books and reading at the centre of what we do.

THE 10-MINUTE CHALLENGE

Can your family read together for just 10 minutes every day?
That's all it takes!

Why 10 minutes?

- It fits into the busiest lives
- Children look forward to it when it's part of the routine
- Over an hour each week adds up!
- It shows reading is important AND enjoyable

Part of the National Year of Reading 2026

Go All In: Spring Reading Ideas!

As the weather warms up, try reading outdoors! Here are some spring reading ideas:

- Into gardening? Read seed packets together, plant guides, books about nature
- Love the outdoors? Take a book to the park, beach, or garden
- Enjoy Easter? Read stories about spring, new beginnings, adventure

Book Character Riddles

Can you guess these characters from the books featured in our Hall of Fame? Answers at the bottom!

1. I'm a friendly monster who befriends children and loves getting into trouble. Tom Fletcher wrote about me. Who am I?
2. I'm a superhero with retractable steel claws and my best friend is called 80HD. Who am I?
3. I wear a striped hat and cause mischief when children are home alone. Who am I?
4. I'm locked in a tall tower with very long hair. Who am I?
5. I'm a girl from outer space who goes on a sea safari. Who am I?
